

Attention ACM Members!

Applications are now being accepted for the Spring 2009 Grassroots Scholarship!

This spring's conference will be held in Richmond, IN, Apr. 23-25. The Central States Region will provide recipients with free conference registration and accommodations.

To apply, submit a letter via email with the following information: your name, mailing address, phone number, fax number, and email address, along with the name and address of the ACM affiliated organization you belong to.

Provide a brief statement outlining the following:

- How will you benefit by your attendance at the Apr 23-25 Central States Regional Conference in Richmond, IN?
- What have you done to support community television in your community? For how long? Why do you think community television is important to your community?
- If selected, how would you use the knowledge gained to invite an even greater diversity of "voices" in your community?
- Are you an individual member of the ACM? Is your affiliated access organization a member of the ACM? You must include acknowledgement from your access center documenting your involvement in local programming; this can be done by the Volunteer Coordinator or Executive Director with a signature.

All current, paid members of the Alliance for Community Media who reside in the four Central States (OH,KY,IN,MI) OR those who are active producers, board or staff members affiliated with an organizational member of the ACM are eligible. The scholarships are provided by the ACM Central States Region and cover conference registration and a hotel room for Apr 23rd and 24th ONLY. The room may be shared by other recipients. A report of your experience must be submitted to the Grassroots committee within two weeks after the conference.
